WHERE ADVENTURE MEETS WILDLIFE

Jozini

Situated in the North-Eastern part of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa at the border of Swaziland and Mozambique. Jozini area boasts of an exciting variety of attractions from renowned wildlife experiences, adventure activities and Zulu cultural offerings.

Border Cave is an extremely rich archaeological site which has provided shelter to humans for over 200.000 years. Today the Jozini area is populated mainly by Zulu, Swazi and Thonga speaking people and a variety of cultural excursions are offered. Further historically significant sites include King Dingaan's Grave and the battle ground of the 1884 battle of Tshaneni (Ghost Mountain).

Natural beauty abounds from the soaring Lebombo cliffs, the large expanse of Lake Jozini to the nature reserves and the Usuthu Gorge where the three countries of Swaziland, Mozambique and South Africa meet. Wildlife, including the Big5 abounds in private reserves. With over 420 bird species these are also world renowned birding areas.

Those who wanted venturous activities will enjoy many offerings including a variety of hikes up Ghost Mountain, the Hlathikhulu forest or game walks in the reserves. Walk over the swinging bridge on the Fig Forest walk in Mkhuze Game Reserve while you search for the rare Pels Fishing Owl. Tiger fishing and boat cruises are also offered.
